STAT

Thank you for your letter of 29 January in reply to mine of the 20th.

You should certainly determine your own time for submitting an application, and we appreciate your courtesy in informing us of the possibility of another connection which you wish to consider first. Should you decide to place an application here we shall, regardless of the time involved, give it every possible consideration upon receipt, and keep you informed as to possibilities at that time.

I will refer your letter to the Director for his information, and can assure you of his continued appreciation for your courtesy and interest.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Executive for Administration and Management
